EU Pavilion at the IUCN World Conservation Congress

Showcasing the EU’s approach to protecting and restoring biodiversity

Natura 2000 – the network of nature protection areas in the territory of the EU
LIFE Programme – the EU’s funding instrument for the environment and climate action
BIOPAMA -the Biodiversity and Protected Areas Management Programme
DOPA- Explorer - the Digital Observatory for Protected Areas
COPERNICUS - the European programme for monitoring the Earth

20 persons encompassing presentation area
2 presentations on documenting conservation efforts for improved coordination 2 events on business models and financing solutions related to nature-based solutions and more!

23 Jan 2020 - Walter Stevens, Head of EU Delegation to the UN in Geneva