On-going SPP projects in Europe and Central Asia

  - Belarus (EaP Green), Moldova, Ukraine, Georgia (EU4Environment)

- UNDA SPP in Eastern Europe, Caucasus and Central Asia (2018-2021)
  - Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Uzbekistan, Belarus

- PAGE
  - Kyrgyzstan, (Kazakhstan?)
Highlights:
Sustainable Public Procurement in Moldova and Ukraine

- Inter-ministerial Committee / Task Force: (MD) (UA)
- National Assessments: Status Assessment, Legal Review, Market Assessment (MD) (UA)
- Prioritization of sustainable product groups
- National Policy and Action Plans: (MD) (UA)
- Development of SPP tools (guidelines, manuals, revision of tender documents)
- Launch of 15 SPP pilot tenders (5 awarded): (MD) (UA)
National level – Selected products

Moldova:
- Organic fruits and vegetables
- Eco-efficient doors and windows

Ukraine:
- Thermal insulation materials
- Paints
- Washing and cleaning products
- Future: Window and door blocks, dry building materials, buildings and structures, lighting and electronics, Copy and printing paper, Toilet paper and napkins, Textile, Cleaning services
Stimulating innovation and more sustainable goods and services through SPP

Progress to date in Moldova and Ukraine

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Implementation</th>
<th>Establish institutional framework for SPP implementation</th>
<th>Develop SP tools</th>
<th>Information campaign on SPP</th>
<th>Prepare, launch and award pilot tenders</th>
<th>Develop reporting and monitoring system</th>
<th>Develop proposal for adjustment of current legislation</th>
<th>Report on communication tools, list of purchasing entities</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Moldova</td>
<td>- Sust. criteria - Guidelines - Tender docs. for 2 prioritized products</td>
<td>- Com. strategy - Brochure - Leaflet</td>
<td>- Roadmap Drafts for 3 tenders - 3 Pilot tenders launched - 5 Contracts awarded</td>
<td>- Drafted roadmap for the adjustment of the current public procurement legislation</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Stimulating innovation and more sustainable goods and services through SPP