

a network supported by the Schweizerische Eidgenossenschaft
Confédération suisse
Confederazione Svizzera
Confederaziun svizra

Decent work and just transition to address climate change

Towards a successful COP21

Organized by the International Labour Organization and the Geneva Environment Network

Geneva – 12 October 2015, 10:30 - 12:00

Venue: ILO, Room V, R3 South

To be held 50 days in advance of the 2015 United Nations Paris Climate Conference (COP21), this dialogue aims to offer a platform for sharing views and perspectives on how the creation of decent work and a just transition for all can contribute to a climate agreement that fully engages the actors in the world of work in the transition towards low-carbon societies.

AGENDA

Introduction - Climate change: negotiations and prospects for COP21

Peter POSCHEN, Director, Enterprises Department, ILO

Nick NUTTALL, Coordinator Communications and Outreach, UNFCCC (video)

Decent work and just transition to address climate change

Hon. Esther R. BYER-SUCKOO, Minister of Labour, Social Security and Human Resource Development, Barbados – Guest of Honour

H.E. Amb. Cecilia B. REBONG, Permanent Representative of the Philippines

YU Vicente Paolo, Coordinator, Global Governance for Development Programme, South Centre

Moderator: Steven STONE, Chief, Economics and Trade Branch, UNEP

Closing address

H.E. Amb. Luis Enrique CHÁVEZ BASAGOITIA, Permanent Representative of Peru (COP 20 Presidency)

H.E. Amb. Elisabeth LAURIN, Permanent Representative of France (COP 21 Presidency)

More information: Moustapha Kamal GUEYE greenjobs@ilo.org

Registration: gen.secretary@unep.org or

<http://www.genevaenvironmentnetwork.org/?q=en/registration-decent-work-and-climate-change>