

Sustainable Development Goals: tools for implementation and mainstreaming

Friday 23 May 2014, 11:00-13:00

International Environment House 2 (7-9 ch. de Balexert)

Background

Sustainable Development Goals: human development at the crossroads

How to make the post-2015 and SDG global agenda more effective than the MDGs?

On the occasion of this roundtable, panellists will present their complementary contributions and insight into the SDGs process. The Millennium Institute will be introducing in Geneva multistakeholder approaches and integrative tools for policy planning, implementation and monitoring of sustainable development strategies, at national, regional and global levels.

Agenda

- SDGs: current and next steps
- How green economy can be an instrument for delivering SDGs
- Contribution of civil society and non state actors
- Tools for sustainable strategy (country level)

With

Jan DUSIK, UNEP Regional Director

Hans R. HERREN, Millennium Institute President & CEO

Sheng FULAI, UNEP Economics and Trade Branch

Susan BROWN, WWF International Global and Regional Policy Director

Michael RÜTIMANN, Biovision Foundation Policy Advisor

Fair trade coffee and light sandwiches available from 11:00
