

 Schweizerische Eidgenossenschaft
Confédération suisse
Confederazione Svizzera
Confederaziun svizra

Swiss Confederation

Celebration of the IPCC 30th Anniversary

Thursday 28 June 2018 - 18:00

STATEMENTS

José ROMERO, Swiss Federal Office for the Environment (Moderator)
Antonio HODGERS, Geneva State Council Vice-President
H.E. Valentin ZELLWEGER, Switzerland Permanent Representative to the United Nations Office in Geneva
Petteri TAALAS, WMO Secretary-General
Jan DUSIK, UN Environment Europe Office Director a.i.
Ovais SARMAD, UNFCCC Deputy Executive Secretary
Hoesung LEE, IPCC Chair

The Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC) was established by the World Meteorological Organization and the United Nations Environment Programme in 1988 to provide the world with a clear scientific view on the current state of knowledge in climate change and its potential environmental and socio-economic impacts.

The IPCC activity is funded through voluntary contributions, and thousands of scientists and other experts contribute on a voluntary basis as authors, contributors and reviewers.

Restaurant L'Attique
World Meteorological Organization
Avenue de la Paix 7bis, Geneva

RSVP: <https://genevaenvironmentnetwork.org/?q=en/ipcc30>

Organized with the support of the

