

WORLD ENVIRONMENT DAY

FILM SCREENING

Naledi: A Baby Elephant's Tale

Monday 6 June . 12:10 - 14:00

STORYLINE

Naledi: A Baby Elephant's Tale tells the incredible, true-life story of a baby elephant born into a rescue camp in the wilderness of Botswana. When she's suddenly orphaned at one month of age, it's up to the men who look after her herd to save her life.

PROGRAMME

- > Welcome by David MORGAN (Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora)
- > Introduction to the FILM by the co-producer Ellen WINDEMUTH
- > Film screening (90 min)
- > Short discussion with Ellen WINDEMUTH & David MORGAN

DETAILS

Country: USA | Botswana
 Language: English
 Release Date: 5 June 2016 (USA)
 Production: Off the Fence, Vulcan Productions
 Runtime: 90 min

WHERE?

Room XIV, Palais des Nations (Cinema)

REGISTER

Please register online if you don't hold a UN badge!

<http://goo.gl/hqVjGj>

www.jme-ge.ch

a network supported by the Schweizerische Eidgenossenschaft
 Confédération suisse
 Confederazione Svizzera
 Confederaziun svizra