

2050Today Information and Exchange Workshop

Tuesday November 3, 2020 (15:00 – 18:00)

English and French interpretation will be provided

THE WORKSHOP WILL BE HELD IN VIRTUAL FORMAT

This workshop will enable all entities interested in joining 2050Today to receive any additional information they may require. The session will detail the methodology used to implement 2050Today and provide examples of climate actions in Geneva.

PROGRAMME

15:00 – 15:45

2050Today objectives and values

Jean-Pierre Reymond, 2050Today global coordinator, Chargé de mission, permanent Mission of Switzerland
The members of 2050Today Initial Group

Questions & Answers

The carbon footprint : methodology, measurement & actions

Werner Halter, Climate Services Director

Questions & Answers

15:45 – 17:45

The impactful solutions

Greening the Blue

Isabella Marras, Coordinator of Sustainable United Nations, UNEP

Mobility

Alexandre Prina, Chief of the prospective Unit, Transport Office, canton of Geneva
Bernard Gay, Head of electro-mobility strategy, canton of Geneva

Environment

Olga Villarrubia, Deputy Director, Environment Office, canton of Geneva

Questions & Answers

Climate Collective BCorp

Jonathan Normand, Founder & Executive Director, B Lab Switzerland

Energy

Christian Bochon, Head of ECO21 Action plan, Energy transition Department, SIG

Recycling

Zoé Cimatti, Head of waste and special waste Department, canton of Geneva

The Green Village

Athena Peralta, Programme Executive, World Council of Churches

Questions & Answers

17:45 - 18:00

Next steps to deliver the International Geneva carbon footprint

Jean-Pierre Reymond, 2050Today global coordinator, Chargé de mission, permanent Mission of Switzerland