

47th Session of the Human Rights Council

“Human-rights-based climate action – taking stock and ways forward”

Tuesday 13 July 2021, 5 p.m. CEST
The event will be held virtually

Subject: A clean environment, biodiversity and a functioning ecosystem are essential to the implementation and realisation of human rights. Without intact environmental conditions, many of the fundamental human rights are at risk. With a particular focus on vulnerable groups and systemic discrimination, the event will explore the state of the UN’s engagement with regard to human-rights-based climate action and identify potential areas for improvement, collective engagement and cooperation.

Welcome Remarks:

- Bärbel Kofler, Federal Government Commissioner for Human Rights Policy and Humanitarian Assistance
- Ambassador Catalina Devandas Aguilar, Permanent Representative of Costa Rica to the UN in Geneva

Panelists:

- Bärbel Kofler, Federal Government Commissioner for Human Rights Policy and Humanitarian Assistance
- David Boyd, UN Special Rapporteur on Human Rights and the Environment
- Bruno Pozzi, Director UN Environment Programme (Europe Office)
- Max Rünzel, CEO, HiveTracks
- Francesca Mingrone, CIEL
- Jonas Schubert, terre des hommes

Moderator:

Marc Limon, Director Universal Rights Group

Registration: This event will take place online. Please use the following link to join the event.