Plastic Justice?

When: 13th November
From 5.30pm

Where: Ballpoint Social Club
Village Market, Nairobi

An immersive evening blending cinema, artivism and environmental justice to explore the issues and solutions surrounding plastics pollution in Africa and beyond.

Plastic pollution is a social justice issue; we need a new framework for acting upon the plastic crisis which addresses this. Enter: Plastic Justice.

This will be a chance to hear from those most affected by the plastics crisis; to celebrate their innovation and resilience; and to collectively discuss and define Plastic Justice as a concept.

Enjoy exclusive film screenings, dance performances and artivism; join thought-provoking discussions with industry experts and innovators; and meet like-minded individuals and organisations.

RSVP here to secure your spot